The grant of land from Al Herman was part of a deal whereby the village will pay $200 towards replacing the culvert on Tiffany road. This amount will be matched by Herman, and Barney Naber has offered to donate $100 to the fund because the improvement will help drain part of his land. The directors are expected to discuss township tax problems and the fiscal crises in Lake county's two major cities, Waukegan and North Chicago.

Antioch High to Have Baseball Team in Field With New Equipment

Antioch High will place a baseball team in inter-school competition this year, T. R. Birkhead, principal announced today.

Uniforms and playing equipment have been purchased and only the weather now stands in the way of outdoor practice. Some of the players will be seen limbering up in the gym any afternoon.

Baseball will be served as an athletic dish along with track this year at Antioch High. The school has had a track team throughout many years, and should have its usual good team in competition this year.

The school will have to start from scratch in baseball, however. It hasn't had a team since the turn of the decade.

Principal Birkhead said that no games have yet been scheduled. The Northwest conference this year extended the baseball season two weeks beyond that of last year so as not to conflict with track.

The Northwest conference recently decided to launch the baseball schedules on Apr. 23 with two games a week planned until June 11. G. A. McElroy, Palatine principal, was delegated to draw up the league schedule.

The conference outdoor track meet will be at Palatine Thursday, May 20, starting at 6:15 p. m.

The coaches went on record as favoring an increase in referee fees from the present $12.50 to $15.

Next years basketball schedule calls half of the games to be played before Christmas and those after Christmas to be played on Friday nights.

WELL-DESERVED PRAISE

Antioch will pay honor to one of its great benefactors, Clarence L. Kutill, tomorrow evening.

Recognizing his great value to the community, representatives of various organizations will attempt to put into words their appreciation of his 25 years of service as a teacher in the Antioch Township High school.

Words Are All Too Futile

Hundreds of young people over a span of two generations have come under his influence and teaching. His influence on their lives is a testimony far greater than all of the oratory or eulogy spoken or written.

The praises of Mr. Kutill are just. Too often they are lavished on those who have gained fame through riches or political achievement while those who have given a community real value go unmentioned. This is an occasion when there has been no oversight.

The Antioch Township High school board is to be commended for its thoughtfulness in arranging this program. No doubt Mr. Kutill will see in the audience many of those whom he guided over rough paths in their school work. He wasn't always an agriculture teacher. His versatility started him in other arts and sciences. His work like his articles to the newspapers was letter perfect. He instilled in his pupils a desire to achieve perfection through hard work and they are now putting his teachings into practice and calling him blessed.

The high school students have from time to time won many honors in agricultural competition. The ribbons and trophies they will keep to show proudly to their children and grandchildren. Behind their achievement, however, was the patient instruction from a man who gave of his knowledge and information freely that they might gain honor. Their victory was his happiness; their defeat, his sorrow.

But there comes a time when recognition is due to one who has served his community so unselfishly and so well and this is an occasion when Antioch friends and pupils of Mr. Kutill may take the opportunity to do so.

They say it has been 25 years since "C. L." became a teacher in the Antioch High school. That is hard to realize and especially when he doesn't look much older than he did back in 1923.

You have been a grand teacher Mr. Kutill. Nothing they can say will overate your worth to Antioch.

Sowing Dragon's Teeth

The President's message on the State of the Union was, in one respect, frighteningly typical of the times. Like political leaders of countries all over the world, the President of the United States now advocates a government of virtually unlimited powers over the private citizen. The agenda includes compulsory health insurance, socialized electric power, the elimination of the free market via price controls and rationing, and other devices to limit the activities of the individual. The list is long, and costly beyond comprehension.

Again it has been demonstrated that tyranny can be born of good intentions. The great tragedy is that to most people tyranny is just a word until they are confronted as individuals with the orders of political appointees from which there is no recourse and no escape. Tyranny threatens the country in proposed legislation and already exists in the activities of some public agencies that are not compelled to recognize local rights. The Tennessee Valley Authority is one illustration. As one observer points out: "TVA . . . is now a super government not subject to state or local authorities. The Tennessee Railroad and Utility Commission no longer has any control of electric utility rates. The local taxing bodies have no authority but must accept what the TVA elects to hand out to them in lieu of taxes. In addition to electric power TVA is actively engaged in manufacturing, farming, food processing, fish processing, lumbering, renting houses, loaning money, quarrying limestone, doing outside engineering work, experimenting with socialized medicine, operating grocery stores, service stations, drug stores, and carrying on research outside the TVA territory . . ."

And TVA is the pattern for similar proposed Federal projects throughout the nation! Last summer a bill was introduced in Congress for a Columbia Valley Authority. Among other things it provided that a "corporation" of three men appointed by the President "shall establish the maximum size of farm units. . . ." The Reclamation Bureau has been advocating a similar expropriation program in California.

Can anyone in his right mind deny that such programs bear the seeds of tyranny? A people's only hold on political freedom is rooted in economic freedom and the sanctity of private property. When these are undermined representative government inevitably founders.

Coal is the Key

The key to European recovery—and to the success of the Marshall Plan—is coal. In the words of Coal Age, "Because of the lack of coal, factories run part time, fields are less fertile, and firesides are cold."

Before the war, Britain and Germany together supplied the bulk of Europe's coal. Now production in the Ruhr is at half the former level, and England can barely produce enough for her own domestic requirements. As a result, Europe has had to go through the costly process of hauling coal from the United States. During the current year, it is estimated, our exports to Western Europe will total the enormous figure of 45,200,000 short tons.

This cannot be indefinitely continued. To quote Coal Age again, "Two developments are vital. First, Western Europe must re-equip its mines. This calls for a vast production effort on its own part, as well as the import of specialized equipment from the U. S. Second, a river of coal, 34,200,000 tons in 1951, must breach the iron curtain and flow from Poland to the West."

In this country, free enterprise has created an efficient coal industry, with the best paid workers in the world. It remains to be seen if Europe can profit by our example.

YOU'LL WAKE refreshed every morning after sleeping under an electric blanket or comforter. There's no heavy weight of blankets to tire you . . . no waking to add or remove blankets. You'll slip off to sleep under a layer of gentle warmth that keeps you comfortable no matter what happens to the temperature.

You'll relax as soon as you stretch out in an inviting, pre-warmed bed . . . shivering between cold sheets will be a thing of the past. And you'll stay relaxed straight through the night under the gentle warmth of a feather-light electric blanket. Just set the control and from then on an electric blanket adjusts automatically to keep you as warm as you like.

Care for electric blankets—laundering and storing—is as simple as can be. They launder and clean as easily as the old-fashioned kind . . . and you save time and work because there's only one blanket for each bed instead of three or four.

The new electric blankets and comforters are available in colors to match your bedroom color scheme. See these new electric blankets and comforters at your dealer or Public Service store today and find out about this modern sleeping comfort.

SOCIETY EVENTS

METHODIST SCHOOL HITS NEW HIGH

Continuing its drive to enroll new students, the Methodist Church school again broke its attendance record last Sunday morning with 200 present. Students in the school are assisting in the drive this week by personally inviting their friends and neighbors who are not enrolled in any other school. The Church school drive, a part of the Crusade for Christ of the Methodist Church will continue throughout 1948. Mr. B. G. Guillaume, the superintendent reported that the young people were enthusiastic for their part in the campaign, and many had promised that they would bring at least one new person this week.

INTERMEDIATE MYF ELECTS OFFICERS

The newly formed Intermediate Youth Fellowship of the Methodist Church elected a temporary committee of three young people to lead the group for the next few weeks until a permanent election of officers takes place. Lauris Burdick became President of the group and Gail Delrick and Sylvia Beeloe were elected as members of the cabinet. Twenty-five young people of 6th, 7th and 8th grade were present at the first meeting last Sunday afternoon.

The second meeting of the group will be held this Sunday afternoon at 3:30 in the church basement. The recreation program, which is being planned by Lauris Burdick will include a number of contests in which two teams will participate. The worship service will take as its theme, "Appreciation of the Gifts of Other Races." Bob Wilton will be the leader. Lorraine Stein and Jolene Gaston will give the talks. Audrey Hattendorf will read the scripture and Nancy Cunningham will give the prayer. Bill Deering will be the pianist.

PROGRESSIVE DINNER

The Senior MYF will enjoy the appetizer for its Progressive dinner this Saturday evening at the parsonage, starting at 6:30. The other courses of the dinner will take the young people to the home of Ray Toft, June and Jane Hunter, David Deering, June and Virginia Petersen, and Verne and Bob Kufak. Later in the evening the Fellowship will dance.

Legion Auxiliary Will Sponsor Poppy Poster Contest Among Schools

The Antioch unit of the American Legion is again sponsoring the annual Poppy Poster Contest in the schools, according to Mrs. L. R. Van Patten, unit president.

National prizes in the contest amount to $300 for three classes: Department prizes of $10.00 for each class with an additional prize of $5 to Junior Auxiliary members winning in the various classes; and the local unit will give prizes of five dollars for each class, stated Mrs. John W. Horan, unit poppy chairman.

There are two classes in this contest; students in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades in the first class; students in the 7th and 8th grades make up the second class. The unit contest ends May 1st, after which the posters will be used for local display purposes in connection with the annual sale of the memorial poppy on May 29. The winning unit posters will be entered in the department contest Aug. 1, and the department winners will go on to the national judging.

Rules of Contest

Among the rules of the contest, all of which can be supplied by Mrs. Horan, are that the posters must be 14 inches x 20 inches; the words "The American Legion" or "American Legion Auxiliary" must be incorporated in the design and that in addition to the poster carrying a picture of the Flaming Poppy, it should have a fitting slogan or title not to exceed ten words.

In order to better acquaint the public with "Poppy Day" on May 29, when the little red flower will be sold on the streets of Antioch, this contest is annually conducted by the American Legion auxiliary. Winners of the local contest last year were:

First Class, Arthur Kraft, 1st; E. James Taylor, 2nd. Second Class—Nancy Peterson, 1st and Ann McMiller, 2nd.

"Each year prior to Memorial day, millions of Americans wear the poppies in memory of those men who died in the fields and through-out the First World War," said Mrs. Van Patten. "All through the winter months these flowers are being manufactured by disabled World War I and veterans in hospitals in Illinois and the returns from the poppy sale will be used for rehabilitation work." Assisting Mrs. Horan with the poppy poster contest and sale are Mrs. Mary Himes, Mrs. W. A. Biron and other auxiliary members.

A Belated Thank You
Due to all I had on my mind, I failed to mention the Rescue Squad boys, so will say thanks for your kind service and promptness.

Sincerely
Mrs. George H. Randall

Uncle Sam Says

Millions of my young nieces and nephews are returning to school to learn from their teachers, schoolmates and books a way of life. Besides grammar, history, arithmetic, home economics and a variety of other courses, they will come face to face with sportsmanship, honesty, self-reliance and the habit of thrift. Facts crammed into the heads of Willie and Jane will come in handy, but thrift is something which will be vital to their well-being every day of their lives. Of course the habit of thrift may be acquired in many ways, but a sure way is the participation of my young nieces and nephews in the United States Treasury Department's School Savings Program.

P. T. A. To See Demonstration
The Antioch Grade school Parent Teacher Association will have a business meeting at 8 p. m. Monday, Mar. 15.

The Rescue squad will give a demonstration of Red Cross first aid work.

Indians Ate Acorns
Some of the American Indian tribes considered acorns a staple item in their diet. The acorns were ground in a mortar, soaked in water or put in baskets, set in running water, or boiled in water for two hours to remove the astringent tannin. It is this tannin in the acorns that makes them undesirable as cattle food. The kernels were pounded and the resulting flour was used like cornmeal. Hundreds of thousands of bushels of acorns fall from the acorn trees of the country each season. Some are eaten by squirrels and hogs, but most of them go to waste.

Many Plywood Uses
Plywood, because it is real wood, has good insulating qualities. It is also an excellent base for linoleum. Floor-to-ceiling hall closets for linen can be made easily with plywood panels. Another use is for subflooring. Builders report a time saving of more than 50 per cent when big panels of plywood are laid for subflooring rather than other material.

Largemouth Black Bass
The general color of the largemouth black bass is dark green above, sides and below greenish silver, three oblique dark stripes across the cheek, belly is white. The head is large and the mouth very wide, the corner of which extends beyond the eye. The largemouth bass will spawn on a mucky, bottom or construct its nest in vegetation or stumps.

Size of Train Crew
While the number varies, depending on the length of run and the character of the train, from 30 to 50 persons—such as conductors, engineers and other members of the crew and pullman employees—are required in the operation of a passenger train between Chicago and the Pacific coast.

Equinoctial Storms
Stormy weather in March and September at the time of the equinoxes is caused because at these times there is generally the greatest difference between day and night temperatures. This tends to favor heavy development of clouds and other factors which bring wind and rain.

SWINE ERYSIPELAS IS NOW IN ALL STATES

One of America's newest swine diseases—erysipelas—is rapidly becoming one of its worst. In 1939 it was reported in 23 states. Today, erysipelas is causing several million dollars in hog losses and exists in every state in the Union. In some areas it has become so implanted in the soil that authorities fear it will be a permanent menace to swine production.

Note the enlarged joints, typical of chronic type of erysipelas.

Perhaps the most difficult problem about coping with swine erysipelas is the fact that it often resembles hog cholera, and in some of its aspects it may resemble other swine diseases.

Symptoms include sudden deaths, arched backs, lameness, high fever, and unwillingness of the hogs to move around. Due to the complexity of the symptoms, a veterinary diagnosis is generally necessary to determine whether erysipelas or some other condition is causing the losses. The disease occurs in two forms. The quick type causes immediate deaths and moves rapidly through the drove. The lingering type causes enlarged joints and sometimes sloughing of the skin.

Fortunately, a very effective vaccine has been developed—and this is proving extremely valuable in coping with erysipelas in areas where it has become a problem. The important feature about use of the vaccine is that it should be given as soon as possible after the pigs are farrowed, because erysipelas very commonly strikes pigs when they are only a few days old. Cement floors, from farrowing until weaning time, have also aided in the control of the disease. If hogs do start dying of erysipelas, the carcasses should be disposed of promptly, because rats and other vermin can act as spreaders and can menace hog production in the entire community.

Uncle Sam Says

Are you counting the days to Christmas? There's nothing comparable to the warmth of Christmas feeling. Second best perhaps is the feeling when you have the money to make dreams come true for you and your family. The most efficient and sure way to build up a healthy backlog of savings is through your company's Payroll Savings Plan for buying United States Savings Bonds or your bank's Bond-A-Month Plan. Every extra savings bond you add to your bond holdings is one more powerful stride toward security. The best Christmas gift you can give your family is to start a 10-year plan of automatic monthly bond buying. For example, your investment of $18.75 a month in a savings bond every month until Christmas, 1957, will result in a nest egg of $2,498.94. U. S. Treasury Department

SHORT STORY

Biggest, Not Best

By ANNA WILSON

"I HAD him hooked and was playing him," Sol's voice drifted across the wisteria to Cal's porch as Cal held forth in the local store. "Then he went round that old rock that sticks out just beneath Calder's Bend and my line snapped. I just saw his tail flicker as he broke water with my hook still in his mouth and—well, you know how it is, boys." Cal could hear the laugh Sol always got when he talked of Old Rusty. "It's always the big one that gets away."

Never knew a man so set on catching Rusty as Sol was—used to spend a lot of time fixing up fancy flies and such, but he never had a bit of luck. Used to swear the big fish laughed at him, especially after the big picnic.

3-Minute Fletton

Jim were brothers. Sol was so up and coming while Jim was tall, lanky and never looked much in his clothes, but steady, with a slow smile.

Cal had gone down the stream to sit by the big elm when Sol and Nancy came down. Sol was pleading with Nancy and once it looked as if she was giving in.

"I'm not sure, Sol," Nancy was no fool and didn't want to make a mistake. "The things you do don't seem so terribly important but they show up a lot—but in marriage a man needs—"

"What does a man need, Nancy?" Sol's voice shook.

"Oh, courage and endurance and sportsmanship—a lot of things."

Her eyes suddenly lit up. "Tell you what, Sol, everybody here has tried to catch Old Rusty. Let me see you try."

Sol went off for his line and Nancy came and sat down by Cal. She looked downright miserable.

OLD RUSTY always lay out under a big rock right across from where Nancy sat with Uncle Cal. Sol spent all of 20 minutes trying out flies. He was satisfied at last, and cast with a flourish. It seemed as if Sol had all the luck in the world for Old Rusty rose to the fly and snapped. Sol let out a whoop, and started to play the big fish that rushed away downstream and Sol followed letting out his reel. Rusty made straight for that sharp old limestone outcrop and snarled the line. Cal could hear Sol losing his temper and floundering in the brush and it came to him that Rusty must have got away.

"Well, Nancy," said Cal, placidly, "it's not likely Rusty'll bite again. Maybe, we should go and say something to Sol." Just then Sol came back, his face red and angry and a gaping rip in his pants, revealing a long, angry scratch. Nancy's indecision was forgotten as she started to patch up Sol, dabbing him with Old Cal—the trouble was that folks always mistook the big fish for the best fish.

Iodine from Cal's pocket kit. It did look as if Nancy had at last made up her mind, but just then someone called for Sol to come and meet Senator Rand. Sol went off, patting Nancy's hand.

"I'll just fix the senator up, Nancy, and be right back—boy, we'll have something to tell them, won't we, honey?" He laughed at Nancy's desperate, "Wait, Sol."

Somehow they had forgotten about Jim—the moss was so soft that they came right up behind him unseen.

"Rusty," Nancy scarcely breathed for Jim was playing the big fish—he played it steadily, grimly, without moving and this time the big fish knew he'd met his master as Jim reeled him in.

It was fighting desperately as Jim took it and he detached the two hooks from its mouth gently—then Jim did a funny thing. "You're a grand fighter, Rusty," he said softly, and threw the big fish back in.

Cal and Nancy stole away quietly on the soft grass. Nancy was thoughtful, you could tell.

Yes, folks said afterwards that Sol looked higher than Nancy Brain when he married the senator's daughter, but Cal smiled cagily when Nancy married Jim.

There's New Glamour in the Way it Goes

TAKE the glamour of its tapered gracefulness for granted, if you will. One glance tells you it's tops.

Take an inside peek at its newly fashioned interiors—and see if you're not dazzled by the luxury that greets your eyes.

But wait—just wait—till you learn what makes this banner beauty run off with the year's high honors on the highway. Dollars to drachmas—you'll fairly itch to get in and GO!

For now your right foot commands a Fireball power plant that's as eager as a panther on the prowl—yet is so quieted in purr and pulse you barely sense its telltale throb.

Now you slip through traffic or light out cross-country as relaxed as a baby with his bottle—in a body that's bountifully big, cozily cushioned, and insulated against the usual noises of traveling.

Now you experience the first scientific system ever devised to shield a car's ride against road noise, shake and the vibration build-up that previously took advantage of an automobile's tendency to play sound box.

Now you ride the washboard roads and cobbles as though they were carpet—thanks to coil springs all around—plus extra-low-pressure tires, carried on Buick's own wider, more stable Safety-Ride rims.

And last but not best, if a Roadmaster's your choice, you can enjoy the really effortless driving—in a new kind of drive that not only frees you of gear-shifting, but that doesn't even shift itself!

It's Dynaflo Drive—a drive that's devoid of all halt, lag and hesitation through all speed ranges—because here, for the first time, the power plant itself does what gears used to do.

Fact is, you'll find the new Buick sparkling with more than a score of new advances—in ten brilliant models that span three series and give you your choice of three wheelbases and four power ratings.

So why dally? Here, certainly, is the dilly of the year for smartness and roominess—for the newest in driving ease and riding relaxation—and for all those basic bounties that are forever Buick's.

Place your order with your dealer now—whether or not you have a car to trade—and hasten the day when you'll reach those motoring heights you hanker for.

Getting More Accurate
Man has progressed 10 thousandths of an inch in the last 40 years, in gauging closer tolerances for precision parts.

RM Building of Bats
If bats are a nuisance about the house or buildings, one means for keeping them away is the use of rather large amounts of naphthalene flakes within the points of entry, then closing all openings. Bats can enter holes of a size to admit a mouse.

New Line Added

Failure to wind the new fish line on the reel correctly may cause it to kink. If the card or spool lies on the floor, the line goes on the reel with a twist in it. If somebody holds the spool between the thumb and forefinger and lets it revolve while the line is wound on the reel there will be no twists.

than any other make of car

True for years—and truer than ever today—with the advent of this newer, smarter, finer Chevrolet for 1948! Official registration figures prove that more people drive Chevrolets—and seven independent surveys prove that more people want Chevrolets—than any other make of car! The reason, of course, is more value. And now Chevrolet value is made all the more outstanding by the smart new styling, brilliant new colors, and even more luxuriously appointed interiors which have been added to all the other advantages of Chevrolet's famous BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST. Be sure to see the new 1948 Chevrolet, and you'll know why more people drive Chevrolets than any other make!

You'll admire the tasteful new styling, the new color harmonies, the new and richer upholstery and appointments which add so much to the enviable Big-Car beauty of Chevrolet's Body by Fisher.

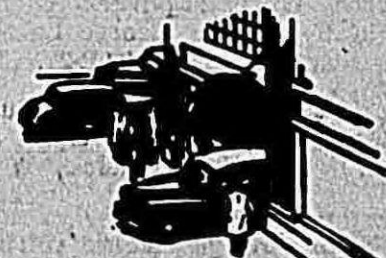

You'll find there isn't any other car in its field that gives the Big-Car comfort of Chevrolet for 1948—direct result of the unitized Knee-Action Gliding Ride.

Chevrolet's world's champion Valve-in-Head engine gives an unequalled combination of performance, endurance, dependability and economy.

Chevrolet brings you the triple safety of Fisher Unitized body-construction, the Knee-Action Ride and Positive-Action Hydraulic Brakes.

The record demand for new Chevrolets prompts us to suggest that you keep your present car in good running condition. See us for service—today!
